

THE CHEDI

ANDERMATT, SWITZERLAND

The Chedi Andermatt receives the Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star Award 2022

The Chedi Andermatt remains top-class and one of the most innovative houses in the hospitality business – not just in Switzerland. A 5-star deluxe hotel with 123 generously dimensioned rooms and suites, it breaks overnight stay records year after year, and is one of the world's best luxury hotels. This has once again been shown with the renewed award by the prestigious Forbes Travel Guide of its highest accolade of five stars, the fourth time in a row that this distinction has been bestowed on The Chedi Andermatt. The hotel in the Urserental thereby maintains its top rank in one of the world's most important luxury hotel guides, further cementing its leading position in the international luxury category. The Forbes Travel Guide has a rich tradition and first-class reputation. It enjoys high credibility and is considered an expert, independent authority that demanding travellers the world over rely on.

Jean-Yves Blatt, General Manager of The Chedi Andermatt, said with pride, "This prestigious distinction is a great compliment to the entire team. Our goal is always to offer our guests the best – the best design, the best and at the same time casual service, the best cuisine. I am delighted that in 2022 for the fourth time in a row we have been ranked among the best houses in the world, and that our Alpine-Asian concept, which is unique in Switzerland, is so well received."

With the excellent 5-star rating in the Forbes Travel Guide 2022, this 5-star deluxe hotel builds on its current success. Through its subtle understanding of service and guests' needs, with innovative packages and a nose for trends, like the acceptance of payments in cryptocurrency it recently introduced, The Chedi Andermatt creates moments of ease and enjoyment, and has steadily won over more and more guests to its philosophy of casual luxury.

About The Chedi Andermatt

Surrounded by the wonderful nature and year-round beauty of the Swiss Alps, The Chedi Andermatt fits elegantly among the classic ski chalets of Andermatt that give this timelessly charming town in the Ursern valley its character. Designed by renowned architect Jean-Michel Gathy of Dennison Architects, this 5-star deluxe hotel opened in 2013 to reveal a perfect fusion of authentic Swiss Alpine chic and Asian style. Traditional materials like warm woods and natural stone create an intimate and stylish atmosphere, which is reflected throughout the 123 spacious guest rooms and suites, as well as in the other facilities of the hotel. These include The Restaurant, The Japanese Restaurant, The Chalet (open only in the winter months), The Bar and Living Room, The Lobby, The Courtyard, The Wine and Cigar Library, and the 2,400 square metre Spa and Health Club. With The Japanese by The Chedi Andermatt, a gourmet restaurant at 2,344 m over sea level, the hotel operates the highest-altitude Japanese restaurant in Switzerland. Furthermore, since 2017 The Japanese Restaurant and since 2021 The Japanese by The Chedi Andermatt have been distinguished by a Michelin star each. In 2021 The Chedi Andermatt once again received the top rating by Forbes Travel Guide, and continues to rank as one of the world's best hotels. More information: www.thechediandermatt.com
