Location

Surrounded by the wonderful nature and year-round beauty of the Swiss Alps, The Chedi Andermatt elegantly blends in with the classic ski chalets that form the image of this timelessly charming village in the Ursern Valley.

Getting here

By car, Andermatt can be reached in 70 minutes from Zurich and 45 minutes from Lucerne. From the motorway exit Göschenen, it takes 10 minutes to get up to Andermatt. The hotel's own underground parking spaces are available to guests on site. A relaxing and impressive train journey takes guests from Zurich to Andermatt in just over two hours. The train station, where the Glacier Express also stops, is within walking distance of the hotel.

The hotel at a glance

The Chedi Andermatt perfectly combines authentic Alpine chic with Asian design elements. The five-star deluxe hotel has 123 spacious rooms and suites in which traditional materials, such as warm woods and natural stone, create a stylish and intimate atmosphere. The hotel also offers a variety of excellent dining experiences, with guests enjoying the choice of five outstanding restaurants and bars. Guests can find peace and relaxation in the unique The Spa and Health Club, covering some 2,400 m².

Rooms

In the 123 tastefully decorated rooms and suites Alpine chic meets Asian elegance, with stunning views over the Gemsstock, the village of Andermatt, the Schöllenen gorge, the Nätschen and the Oberalp area. Dark Alpine wood, soft leather armchairs, cosy sofas, panorama windows and fireplaces bring the magic of the mountain landscape into the comfortable, spacious rooms. Large bathtubs adorn bathrooms which boast heated, natural stone floors and separate rain showers. The doors to these spacious bathrooms can be closed in stages, offering guests the possibility of increasing the size of the living space or enjoying the privacy of a separate bathroom.

The Chedi Andermatt has 31 Deluxe Rooms (52 to 55 m²), 13 Grand Deluxe Rooms (52 to 55 m², upper floors), four Junior Deluxe Suites (90 m²), fifty Deluxe Suites (110 m²), 23 Grand Deluxe Suites (190 m²), one Gemsstock Suite (134 m²), one Furka Suite (330 m²) and one Gotthard Suite (350 m²).

Gastronomy

(Restaurants/Bars/Lounges)

- The Restaurant (204 seats of which 160 indoors and 44 outdoors)
- The Japanese Restaurant (8 seats at the sushi and sashimi bar / 28 seats in the dining room)
- The Lobby (85 seats)
- The Wine and Cigar Library (The Wine Library – 51 seats / The Cigar Library 12 seats)
- The Bar and Living Room (100 seats)
- The Pool (94 seats – 80 indoors and 14 outdoors)

Restaurant, which offers connoisseurs authentic Japanese delicacies at the sushi and sashimi bar, is exceptional in the Swiss Alps and has been awarded 17 GaultMillau points and a Michelin star since October 2017.

With The Japanese by The Chedi Andermatt (1 Michelin star and 15 GaultMillau points), a top-class extension of the hotel's Japanese restaurant was opened in December 2019 at the mountain station of the Gütsch Express, 2,300 metres above sea level.

The Wine and Cigar Library is a particularly enjoyable place to end the evening, inspired by the world's largest collection of cigars in a hotel with more than 640 different formats, exquisite literature or precious illustrated books. The Bar and Living Room embodies an ideal après-ski meeting place. Small culinary delights are served in The Lobby, The Courtyard and at The Pool bar. In the pop-up restaurant The Chalet, guests can enjoy Swiss specialities during the winter months.

Responsibilities

Since June 2022, Carsten Kypke is responsible as Chef de Cuisine for the cuisine of The Chedi Andermatt. Executive Chef of The Japanese Restaurant remains Dietmar Sawyere, who is also responsible for the gastronomy of the Andermatt Swiss Alps.

Spa und Fitness

The Spa

Wellness lovers can visit The Spa and take advantage of several baths and saunas (including a sauna and a Finnish sauna), a steam bath, a warm- and cold-water plunge pool and a hammam. Guests can relax as they wish while enjoying rejuvenating spa treatments in one of the ten spa suites. The Spa is deeply rooted in FarEastern philosophy and calls on traditional Asian healing arts. Manicures, pedicures and hairstyling are also available. The impressive 35-metre long sports pool with glass roof and the 12-metre long heated outdoor pool are also firm favourites.

The Health Club

The in-house fitness studio boasts cutting-edge Technogym fitness equipment. The Technogym range is equipped with the VISIOWEB digital platform and offers a range of free weights, a kinesis training wall, Power Plates and Pilates apparatus. Guests taking advantage of the fitness studio may also participate in group classes (e.g. yoga and Pilates) or group/individual training with a personal trainer.

Golfplatz

The Andermatt Swiss Alps golf course is an 18-hole course (par 72), designed in accordance with ecological criteria and beautifully set in the spectacular natural landscape. Covering 130 ha (one-third golf course, one-third farmland and one-third ecological compensation area) and stretching some 6 kilometres in length, this golf course meets international tournament standards. It is only a few minutes on foot from The Chedi Andermatt. The "Alpine Golf" offer also includes the Sedrun, Realp and Source du Rhône courses (all 9 holes).
