

THE CHEDI

ANDERMATT, SWITZERLAND

PRESS
PLEASE

WWW.THECHEDIANDERMATT.COM

CHEDI
HOSPITALITY

The Art of Winter: Christmas and New Year at The Chedi Andermatt

As temperatures drop and anticipation builds, The Chedi Andermatt prepares for an extraordinary winter season and a sparkling Christmas and New Year. A season of special moments awaits guests, from llama trekking through snow-dusted valleys, ski racing, champagne brunches and ice carving workshops, to exhilarating snowshoe expeditions, gingerbread decorating and horse-drawn carriage rides through the picturesque village.

Christmas at The Chedi

Christmas at The Chedi Andermatt costs from £7,576* for a four-night stay for two based on double occupancy. The price includes four nights' accommodation with breakfast each morning, access to The Spa & Health Club, non-alcoholic beverages from the minibar and a programme of Christmas activities including horse carriage rides, llama visits, a complimentary kids club and a visit from Santa Claus.

Those seeking tranquillity will find sanctuary in the hotel's stunning spa, complete with rejuvenating treatments and peaceful yoga sessions. While gourmets can retreat to The Chedi's Winter Village which, set against the majestic backdrop of snow-capped peaks, greets guests with twinkling lights, crackling fires and gourmet delights including artisanal hot chocolate and pancake stations and a traditional cheese fondue served in The Chalet.

New Year at The Chedi

The last day of 2025 offers a varied programme of activities in the crisp winter air. From The Chedi Ski Race and ice stock sport on the Andermatt ice rink to sledging down the Gütsch and a sensational midnight firework display to herald in the New Year. The two-night New Year package costs from £5,483.6* for two based on double occupancy. This includes a two-night stay with breakfast each morning, New Year's Eve dinner, access to The Spa & Health Club, non-alcoholic beverages from the minibar and activities such as The Chedi Ski Race. Winter arrives like poetry at The Chedi Andermatt. The first snowflakes settle on ancient peaks and winding trails, transforming this Alpine sanctuary into a living masterpiece where every moment becomes art. For reservations and detailed pricing, visit www.thechediandermatt.com.

Press Contact:

Frederikke Astor Kiilerich, PR & Marketing Manager
The Chedi Andermatt, Gotthardstrasse 4, 6490 Andermatt
E-Mail: pr@chediandermatt.com, www.thechediandermatt.com

THE CHEDI

ANDERMATT, SWITZERLAND

About The Chedi Andermatt

Surrounded by the wonderful nature and year-round beauty of the Swiss Alps, The Chedi Andermatt blends elegantly into the classic ski chalets of Andermatt, shaping the timeless charm of this village in the Ursern Valley. Designed by renowned architect Jean-Michel Gathy of Denniston Architects, this five-star deluxe hotel opened in 2013 and perfectly combines the authentic alpine chic of Switzerland with Asian style. Traditional materials like warm woods and natural stone create an intimate and stylish atmosphere, reflected in the 119 spacious guest rooms and suites as well as throughout the hotel's extensive facilities. These include: The Restaurant, The Japanese Restaurant, The Winter Village including The Chalet (open only during winter months), The Bar and Living Room, The Lobby, The Courtyard, The Wine and Cigar Library, and the 2,400 square meter The Spa & Health Club. The hotel also operates The Japanese at Gütsch, the highest-located Japanese restaurant in Switzerland at 2,344 meters, led by Executive Chefs Dominik Sato and Fabio Toffolon and awarded a Michelin star. The Japanese Restaurant, also under the leadership of the two-star chefs, received a second Michelin star in 2023. In 2025, The Chedi Andermatt was once again awarded top placement by the Forbes Travel Guide and continues to rank among the best hotels worldwide.

For more information, visit www.thechediandermatt.com.

About Andermatt

Andermatt-Sedrun-Distentis is Switzerland's largest ski region, with 180 kilometres of pistes and 33 lifts reaching up to 3,000 metres, all powered by 100% renewable energy. Alongside incredible skiing, visitors can enjoy some of the country's longest runs from mid-November to late April, Andermatt provides visitors with Swiss alpine village charm, Michelin-starred dining and luxury hotels. Following a multi-billion-dollar, 15-year transformation, the resort now blends big-mountain adventure with five-star lifestyle, anchored by The Chedi Andermatt and the newly opened Andermatt Reuss quarter with 35 boutiques and 10 restaurants. This 2025/2026 winter, Andermatt presents a season of alpine elegance, unveiling a programme of festive celebrations, culinary collaborations, and world-class skiing—cementing its status as the Swiss Alps' must-visit winter destination.

For further information, please visit <https://www.andermatt-swissalps.ch/en>

QUINN PR

NYC/Miami/LA/London

Email: Chediandermatt@quinn.pr

Press Contact:

Frederikke Astor Kiilerich, PR & Marketing Manager

The Chedi Andermatt, Gotthardstrasse 4, 6490 Andermatt

E-Mail: pr@chediandermatt.com, www.thechediandermatt.com